#LINEUP11

It was a tough week to get through. Not because of injuries or selection headaches or weather concerns. Sure, it did rain on Friday night but not at an alarming rate; sure, Neale still had his quad injury, but that guy hardly runs anyway; and yes, Chamo announced he might be in Melbourne the day of the Semi Final but hey, we'd deal with that later, have flights cancelled, etc.... no for now, this was much worse! It started with the death of the guy that invented fairy bread. Rob had informed the team of this on the messenger group before adding ... "there were hundreds and thousands at his funeral". And so began a plethora of bad dad jokes and puns that carried on till match day. Smithy and Tim were next to get involved with their Lego blocks and Tupperware, then Stew, and then Geoff made it necessary to turn the audio notifications off for the next few hours. Poor Julia had run out of "unimpressed face" memes by this stage. Make it stop, for the love of God, make it stop!!

Moving along ... after two average team performances against bottom-of-the-ladder teams, there would be no excuses against one of our toughest rivals we've had since joining the North comp in 2020. Sure, Ourimbah had lost their past two games against other top four contenders and had four borrowed players on the teamsheet, but we could not afford to be complacent. A win would guarantee us a Top 2 spot and keep us in pole position for League Champions. Again, we had a full complement of five subs. Out this week were: Nige (serving a one-week suspension), Neale (the aforementioned quad), and O'Connor (who would return to the Coast a day too late).

Boz had warned that despite Ourimbah missing a few names on their teamsheet - including their regular keeper - their midfield remained the same. To match them, Luca, Smithy, and Cruise were up to the challenge and set in motion a solid opening twenty minutes of football in the middle of the park. After pressing forward and forcing a few corners, one came to fruition. McGarvey's low-flying right footed corner sailed across the goalmouth. Not wanting to ruin its trajectory, Andy veered out of its path and at the far post, Smithy was there to stretch out and slot it away. The second goal was a Chamo special. From a throw-in, Chamo hurled the ball into the goalmouth. Tim was glad he didn't go any shorter on his recent haircut as he nudged it with the back of his noggin' to where McGarvey was calmly waiting to tap it in. Things got a little sloppy towards the end of the first half but Rob and the boys at the back contained the few scares to be had.

Boz and a fired-up Luca were in fine form at the break inspiring the boys to be relentless upon returning to the field. With the same starting eleven, the boys soon increased the lead to three with some lovely build up work from the backs and flanks. Pushing forward, Andy found McGarvey on the edge of the defence. With a tricky little tap back, he sent Smithy - who was tenacious all day - charging through before getting to ball to Ashton who, from the right edge of the box, lined it up perfectly with that left foot of his and fired it with enough venom to bounce off the keeper and into the net. Not long after, we had a throw-in that was at perfect range for Chamo. "I got this" he yelled as he who marched towards the sideline. With another powerful throw, this one found the back of Ashton's head and then McGarvey's own header put it away. Not one foot was involved.

Whilst we were ahead on the scoreboard, by Brad's count we were trailing in the free kicks department. At one point he quipped to the ref that it was 14 to 1 in Ourimbah's favour. Hyperbole perhaps or Brad just wanted to say the number 14. Whilst Ourimbah had seemingly conceded this game by voicing their preparation for next week, they didn't stop coming and were awarded a goal on the inside post that Rob declared was an own goal due to the ball bouncing off him after hitting the woodwork. Rob, why did you tell me that? Now I must write it in!! The Falcons almost had a second but that was ruled offside. Even their keeper made the trek to the other end for a corner. He got a touch to it too but a wall of Wyoming defence thwarted his plans. Stew couldn't quite get the proper touch to it to score an open goal from 75 meters away.

So, despite a few more scares towards the end of the second half, we held out for a convincing 4-1 victory. Boz, Cruise and Chamo (earning a new moniker, Bruce Chamazan!) were in fine form leading the backline. Chamo did finish with an injury concern, something that happened late in the game and not the first half slip on his arse when he took a free kick, that must've been the "1" for Wyoming Brad had mentioned to the ref. Smithy picked up the MVP votes followed closely by Ashton who's starting to show his stellar 2013 form, and Wal who was solid on the defensive flanks. The win seals up a Top 2 spot and we are one win away from League Champions as The Entrance smashed 2nd placed Gwandalan, 9-3! Today also marked the 200th game for this team since Flanno recruited a bunch of mostly Dads of an Under 8s team to put on the boots back in 2011.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

Some big wins this round. Gwandalan's shock 9-3 loss to The Entrance sees them fall 7pts behind Wyoming-1 who need just one more win to wrap up League Champions. Ourimbah's third successive defeat sees them drop out of the Top 4. The Entrance have jumped to 3rd whilst Kanwal-2 have squeezed into fourth..

THE FINALS RACE

If Gwandalan (vs Doyalson) and The Entrance (vs Wyoming-2) win this weekend, they will both secure finals football leaving Ourimbah and Kanwal-2 to battle for fourth spot. Ourimbah have the advantage with three games to play (Mountains, Gwandalan, Kanwal-1) whilst Kanwal-2 have two (Toukley, The Entrance).
